IOWA PROHIBITION.

The Mule Law Declared to be Constitutional.

WITH BUT ONE DISSENTING OPINION.

While Prohibition Remains the Law of the State, Local Majorities and High License May Prove a Bar to Prosecution.

Des Moines, Ia., April 3.—The supreme court in an opinion filed yesterday, sustained the constitutionality of the Iowa statute for the regulation of the liquor traffic familiarly known as the Mule law. The opinion written by Justice Deemer received the endorsement of the five republican members of the court, while Justice Kinne, the single democratic member, filed a dissenting opinion pronouncing the law unconstitutional, and a rank attack upon the integrity of representative government.

The mule law was passed by the last legislature as a compromise measure between license and prohibition. Under its provisions prohibition remains the general law of the state, but upon the petition of a majority of the voters or cities of over 5,000 population of 65 per cent. of the voters of counties having no cities of that size, city councils and township authorities may inflict a mule tax of $600 and upward per annum upon places where liquor is sold, and the payment of this tax shall be a bar to prosecutions under the prohibitory law.

The constitutionality of the measure was attacked in the lower courts immediately after it became a law. The case decided yesterday was entitled, "The State ex rel. D. F. Wetter vs. James Forker and W. W. Moore." It went to the supreme court from Polk county when Judge Spurrer sustained the constitutionality of the law but expressed the opinion that there was room for doubt. The state appealed. The main contention was that the legislature delegates lawmaking power to the people of localities, to city councils and township trustees in contravention of the fundamental law of the state. This view the majority of the supreme court rejects while it is supported by Judge Kinne in his dissenting opinion.

THEY ARE LOYALISTS NOW.

Ex-Confederate Soldiers Offering Their Services Against Cuban Rebels.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Oddly enough, the insurrection in Cuba is beginning to take on, so far as the United States is concerned, somewhat of a sectional and political coloring. Within the past few days letters have been received at the Spanish legation from ex-confederate soldiers in the south offering their services to assist Spain in suppressing the rebellion. While there is no probability that any of these offers will be accepted, the fact is regarded as curious as showing that there are still some confederate veterans "spoiling for a fight."

Some opponents of "Manifest destiny," who are carefully following the developments in Cuba, suggest doubts whether the cession or that island to the United States or its forcible possession by this country, if either event should ever be brought about, would prove an unalloyed benefit to the Cuban land owners.

When Florida was purchased from Spain the United States agreed to pay $5,000,000 for it, and this amount was offset by our claims against the mother country for seizure of our vessels during preceding years. It is claimed that in few, if any cases, did the United States recognize the grants of land by the Spanish crown to its citizens in Florida, and that immediately upon their falling into our possession these lands were thrown open to settlement, and in some instances were sold to the highest bidder.

The Delaware Senatorial Deadlock.
DOVER, Del., April 3.—Yesterday marked the beginning of the twelfth week of the senatorial deadlock. Only one ballot was taken, the 100th, and it resulted: Higgins, republican, 9; Adickes, republican, 4; Massey, republican, 3; Penniwell, republican, 1; Ridgely, democrat, 9; Tunnell, democrat, 1; absent, 3.

Reported Defalcation Confirmed.
WINONA, Minn., April 3.—The alleged defalcation of George C. Stott, late cashier of the Mississippi River Logging Co., has been confirmed by an examination of the books. The deficit amounts to $22,000. It is said his peculations were carried on for several years.

Only Half a Meeting.
WASHINGTON, April 3.—But four members of the cabinet—Secretaries Gresham, Herbert and Lamont and Postmaster-General Bissell—attended yesterday's meeting of that body. Secretaries Carlisle, Morton and Smith and Attorney-General Olney failed to put in an appearance.

FRED ALLEN, living near Delevun, has a black-tailed fawn on his farm. It was sent to him by a friend in Texas. An excelsior factory at Danville was destroyed by fire, occasioning a loss of $8,000.

THE TAYLOR MURDER CASE.

The Fate of the Defendants in the Hands of the Jury.

CARROLLTON, Mo., April 3.—The case of the state against William and George Taylor, charged with the murder of Gus Meeks, was given to the jury last night at the conclusion of the arguments by the attorneys. After hearing the instructions the jury were informed that they would be excused from considering the case until 7 o'clock this morning.

The opinion is so strong now that the verdict will be for conviction that the talk of mob violence has quieted down. There is no doubt, however, that a verdict of acquittal would inflame the public perhaps to a dangerous pitch.

Sheriff Stanley received the following from Gov. Stone yesterday:

"Do you apprehend mob violence in the Taylor case? Notify me if you desire a company of militia."

The sheriff replied: "I apprehend no danger at present. Will advise you later."

This plainly and truthfully shows the feeling in Carrollton. There is no danger of mob violence. Sheriff Stanley has the situation well in hand, and since Saturday has not felt the slightest alarm.

A NICE SPECIMEN

To be Sent Abroad to Represent this Great American Republic.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Representatives of several well-known firms in this city were seen yesterday, and denounced as a swindler of the first water. Walter T. Von Johannsen, stated in Washington dispatches to have been given credentials to Berlin authorities by Secretary Gresham, and to have been made honorary representative of the department of agriculture by Secretary Morton on the strength of his declaration that he represented several California farms and would have charge of elaborate exhibits of California products at Berlin and other European capitals. For two or three years Johannsen posed as a coffee importer from Central America and managed to obtain considerable money from many firms and individuals, and his creditors have only the memory of his plausible stories to console them.

Earnings of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul.

CHICAGO, April 3.—The earnings of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway for the fourth week of March were $731,935; for the corresponding week of 1894, $962,953; decrease, $230,998.

Making It Unanimous.

BERLIN, April 3.—Prince Bismarck has received more than 1,000,000 congratulatory postal cards and letters and between 10,000 and 11,000 telegrams.

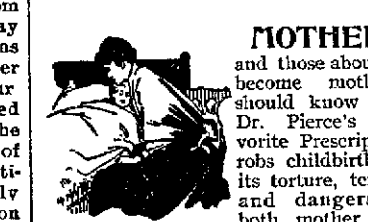

Continued for Two Weeks.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—The hearing of petitions for probate of the Fair wills was continued yesterday until the 16th inst.

THERE is a mad dog scare at Wesley Chapel, near Champaign, owing to the strange actions of a stray dog. Mayor Harris, of Champaign, has ordered all dogs to be muzzled.

FLOYD HOPKINS, an inventor, of Belvidere, Ill., has been held in bonds of $2,500 at Chicago. It seems he sold a patent right twice, once to Charles W. Masters, of Lincoln.

MOTHERS
and those about to become mothers, should know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription robs childbirth of its torture, terrors and dangers to both mother and child, by aiding Nature in preparing the system for parturition. Thereby "labor" and also the period of confinement are greatly shortened. It also promotes an abundant secretion of nourishment for the child. During pregnancy, it prevents "morning sickness" and those distressing nervous symptoms from which so many suffer.

Tanks, Cattle Co., Texas.
DR. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.:
Dear Sir—I took your "Favorite Prescription" previous to confinement and never did so well in my life. It is only two weeks since my confinement and I am able to do my work. I feel stronger than I ever did in six weeks before.

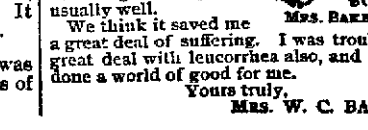

Yours truly,
Corda C. Cullipfer

A MOTHER'S EXPERIENCE.

South Bend, Pacific Co., Wash.
DR. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.:
Dear Sir—I began taking your "Favorite Prescription" the first month of pregnancy, and have continued taking it since confinement. I did not experience the nausea or any of the ailments due to pregnancy, after I began taking your "Prescription." I was only in labor a short time, and the physician said I got along unusually well.

We think it saved me a great deal of suffering. I was troubled a great deal with leucorrhoea also, and it has done a world of good for me.

Yours truly,
Mrs. W. C. BAKER.

DR. VINCENT ON ALASKA.
An Address on a Journey to the Frozen North.
Last night there was a fair-sized audience numerically at Grace M. E. church to hear the entertaining address on "The Arctic Region," delivered by Dr. Edward Vincent, who was a member of Lieutenant Peary's expedition. Dr. Vincent was one of the most active members of the exploring party. He gave a very amusing and instructive address, and exhibited native costumes and utensils and models of sledges, besides numerous relics. He explained that one jacket which he exhibited was made from the fur of the Arctic fox, the skins of which were valued at from $20 to $100 each. He traded a razor to a native for the jacket. The native thought he was getting the razor too cheap and brought three more razors to Dr. Vincent for good measure.
In speaking of the religion of the natives of the Arctic regions, Mr. Vincent said it was hard to find out what they really did believe beyond the fact that they think good people go up and become stars, their brilliancy being in proportion to their goodness on earth. They believe bad people go down and that something horrible befalls them, but just what that is they don't pretend to know. At the close Dr. Vincent invited any who wished to examine his relics and native costumes, and many availed themselves of the opportunity.

"Peak Sisters" at Home.
There was a largely attended and enjoyable entertainment given last night at the Cumberland Presbyterian church, when the Peak Sisters from Alaska appeared attired as old maids, each wearing a black dress, long white apron, long white pointed capes and caps, the caps being two feet long. The characters in the highly amusing sketch were taken as follows:
Carrie Henry Sister Kariah, the eldest Nellie Tyle Sophia
Evelyn Hickey Beulah
Marie Tridley Maria
Clara Vaughan Betsy, deaf mute
Sue Schmitt Dorothy
Also, Zoe Cobb, Nanette McGuire, Mae Marshall, Ethel Ashmore, Nellie Cooper and Jessie Wade.
During the evening fine refreshments were served.

Will Not Give a Charity Ball.
A meeting of the board of directors of the Anna B. Millikin Home was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. M. Catto on West William street. It was decided not to give the charity ball as was at first planned but to solicit among the people of the city for the necessary funds to build the nursery in connection with the home. The work of building will commence as soon as the money is raised. A committee was appointed to get the reports of the work of the various branches of the charitable union so that the annual report can be published in the papers. Mrs. Sparks will resign her position as matron of the Home this month. The ladies have not yet appointed anyone in her place.

"Special Delivery" To-Night.
At the Grand to-night the comedy drama, "Special Delivery," will be presented. It is strong in its amusing comedy scenes, which are numerous and bright. The play is acted forcibly and effectively, and yet without the noise so common to melodrama. Some of the scenes are enlivened with singing by the Trocadero quartet and members of the cast. The play is well staged and well cast, good work being done by Ralph Stuart, Tessie Deagle, Joe Dailey, Harry Gereford and Emma Dunn. The Deacatur mail carriers receive a liberal percentage of the receipts from all the tickets they sell for this attraction.

Good Votes.
The Illinois supreme court Tuesday handed down opinions in the case of Sanner vs. Patton, which went up from Shelby county. The supreme court holds that a voter may write the name of the candidate of his choice on the official ballot, and that a vote so cast must be counted. In the case under consideration 25 ballots on which the name of a candidate had been written, were thrown out by the election judges. The circuit court sustained the judges in so doing, but this decision is now overruled.

BRADLEY BROS' MILLINERY.
The Very Latest in Stylish Hats and Bonnets--Grand Opening Display.
There is no more popular establishment in Decatur just now than the Bradley Bros' store, where the grand spring opening is in progress in the millinery department. The store has been crowded for two days by the ladies who have learned by past experience that Bradley Bros. never fail to get all that is "up to date" in millinery. The reception in charge of Miss Gill never fails to prove a time of profit and enjoyment. The display is grand and beautiful, varied and tasteful. Hats of shirred gauze on silk wire are a novelty, and make a very light and graceful adornment for a woman's head. The crown of the fashionable hat makes no pretense of matching the brim in color or material. There can be a black brim with a coarse straw crown of green, brown, yellow or any other color that the eccentricities of Easter millinery may suggest. Flowers and feathers rival each other in popularity as a trimming, and the colors are bright and subdued, as may suit the fancy of the purchaser. Both are popular. Black is used with effect this year in connection with all the brighter shades of trimming. Anybody, however fastidious they may be, can have their notions gratified and elaborated at Bradley Bros. Among the hats and bonnets in the display are the following:
A Napoleon hat of rough braid butter yellow, brim faced with a plisse of black chiffon an aigrette arrangement of chiffon held at the left front by an ornamental jet and a choux at the back of green and yellow ribbon held by a jet pin.
A large hat of white cocoa braid with plaited brim; the brim veiled with cream tulle, and has a tall headdress at the back. There is a full cluster of tea roses and foliage and a bandaux of tea roses under the brim.
The Della Fox hat is among the leading styles. It is a crown in fancy brown braid spangled in jet. There is a Grecian band crossing the front and French head tips at each side over the ears, a choux of Parma violets finishing the tips.
The Anna Gould hat is a large Gainsboro brim, formed of point de esprit net; a Casimir premier crown of cocoa braid with three dem. plumes forming the trimmings, and is finished in French tea roses.
A small bonnet of white eyelet lace, draped across the front with velours of brilliant in hermosa pink. At the back a tall shell of lace held by rhinestone ornaments, and at each side a cluster of green roses with sprays of green rose leaves.
A bright yellow straw turban with large black roses on each side and three loops of turquoise ribbon standing up in front.
A black lace hat with peaked crown, and the brim held up with a bow of black satin ribbon, mounted with pink velvet roses, at the front of the crown a cluster of pink velvet roses, mounted with a bunch of aigrettes, supporting a pair of yellow lace wings.
A Napoleon turban of black net embroidery with green sprangles, twisted black velvet on brim knotted in front; a monture of velvet dahlias at the left of the front and on each side three jet Cas-mirs.
A Dutch bonnet of looped braid in butter color; at the front a fall of many loops of the braid clasped by a bracelet of jet and rhinestones. Across the front a twist of violet velvet and a bunch of violets at the ears, and at each side of the back a bunch of green rose leaves.
The Trilby hat is a fancy crown of black braid and a Roman band of gold and jet encircling the crown, trimmed at each ear with French head tips and jet Casmir pins at the back.
A child's hat with a brim of cream eyelet shirred lace and a white Leghorn crown; trimmed in pink velvet baby ribbon with clusters of lillies of the valley; Alsatian effect of cream tips across the front, and a bandaux of cream ribbon and rhinestone buckles.
A handsome child's Leghorn Napoleon hat faced with cream crepe; rushing of plisse, trimmings of cream satin ribbon, cluster of cut aigrettes and ties of cream ribbon.

A Large Flame.
The trouble with most gasoline stove flames is that they are not large enough, and so do not give heat enough. We have a stove that has a flame that is as large as a cake pan. Step in and see it and ask about it.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 3, 1895.

Marie Wainwright.

That charming actress and beautiful woman, Marie Wainwright, will be seen at the Grand on Thursday evening in her superb scenic and costume production of the brilliantly successful society drama, "Daughters of Eve." In it Miss Wainwright has won the greatest success of her career. No new play of the present season has made such a marked sensation in New York, Chicago, and most of the largest cities. The New York World of October 23d last said: "Daughters of Eve" is an intensely strong modern society drama. The story is vivid, the plot intricate or involved, and the play has several powerful scenes. To be sure it is written to point a moral, and it seems as though the authors in this case had struck a popular chord in advocating the social ostracism of the roue, and holding up to strong denunciation 'woman's' inhumanity to woman.' The dialogue is bright and at times epigrammatic.

The Noon Fire.

The apparatus from hose house No 1 were called to the Smith studio this noon to put out a fire that had gained some headway in the operating room of the gallery. Geo. Smith, the proprietor, stepped back from the office to the operating room and discovered the place on fire. No one knows how nor where the fire started but is presumed a spark from the stove caused all the trouble. The department made a quick run and soon extinguished the fire. The damage will amount to $250 and is fully insured in the Hanover Fire Insurance Company.

Dropped Dead in a Chair.

Mrs. Carrie Lessor, aged 56 years, dropped dead, supposedly of heart disease, this morning at the home of her daughter, 940 North Jasper street in the fifth ward. She had gone there to assist her daughter and expired after sitting herself in a chair. Coroner Bendure held an inquest this afternoon. Mrs. Lessor's husband died in the insane asylum a few months ago and was buried in Greenwood.

Casser.

The much needed rain was welcomed by all. The funeral of Mrs. Newcomer was largely attended at Long Creek Saturday.

Miss Laura Bullard left for her home at Warrensburg Tuesday, after a visit with relatives here.

Ed. and John Chapman visited last week with their uncle, Mr. Smith, near Arthur.

Mr. Underwood, wife and daughters Louie and Cora, of Clinton, spent Sunday with relatives at this place.

There is some talk of a trade by which the management of the store here will change hands. Nothing definite at this writing.

Mrs. W. A. Underwood was called to the sick bed of her mother, Mrs. Lyons, at Cisco, Saturday.

Dr. Leorgan has sold his residence, drug store and practice to Dr. Patterson, of Boody, who takes charge of his new work this week. Dr. Leorgan will move to Decatur and after a short time will begin the practice of medicine there.

It is the band of matchless Manhattan Beach.

It is the band of the great St. Louis Exposition.

It was the great band of the World's Fair.

[Special to the REPUBLICAN.]

CHICAGO, April 3.—This morning the fact was given out at the Northwestern National Bank that the cashier, F. W. Gooker, was short $50,000 in his accounts. soon as people know you have it for sale they send for a Dish Washer. Address the Clinax

FACTS TOLD OF CUBA.

The Island is the Wealthiest of Spanish Possessions.

Revolutions Have Been Frequent for More Than Seventy-Five Years—Havana, the Capital, is a Great and Prosperous City.

Cuba is about as large as England proper, without the principality of Wales. Its greatest length is 800 miles, its narrowest part 20 miles, and its average width about 40 miles. The circumference of the island is 2,000 miles, and is supposed to contain 35,000 square miles.

The nearest port to this continent is Matanzas, lying due south from Cape Sable, Fla., a distance of only 100 miles. Havana is 60 miles west of Matanzas.

The climate is variable, but snow never falls in Cuba. In the cities and near the swamps yellow fever prevails from the middle of June to the last of October, but in the interior of the island it is no more unhealthy than in American cities in summer. The average temperature at Havana is 77, the maximum 80 and the minimum 50 degrees. The population of the island is about 2,000,000, of which 800,000 are Spaniards.

Havana, the eighth commercial capital of the world, with a population of 400,000, has a harbor populous with the ships of all nations. Moro Castle, with its big guns peering out through the yellow stones and its sentinel light-house, stands guard over the narrow entrance, with the battery of La Punta opposite. The city is rich in public buildings, cathedrals and venerable churches. The dwelling-houses are universally so constructed as to form an open square in the center, which constitutes the only yard or court attached. The house is divided into a living-room, a storeroom, chambers and stable, these all upon one floor—the family vehicle blocks up in part the only entrance, which is used in common by horses, ladies, slaves and gentlemen callers. The rooms are lofty and the floors stuccoed or tiled in marble, while the walls and ceilings are frequently ornamented in fresco. The most striking peculiarity of the town-house in Cuba is the precaution taken to render it safe against sudden attack, each accessible window being secured with stout iron bars from top to bottom, while bullet-proof doors bar the entrance, which is used in common by horses, ladies, slaves and gentlemen callers.

Greenberry Martin, only candidate for poundmaster, received a total of 1,533 votes.

The Republican vote would have been much larger had the Democrats put up a ticket. It speaks well for the party organization that under the circumstances so many votes were polled. Last fall the Republican vote cast for state treasurer in Decatur township was 2848. The vote yesterday would have exceeded that number easily had the Democrats been in the fight. The tabulated statement of the vote is given in this issue.

Fire at the Breneman Home.

The entire fire department was called out this forenoon by what promised to be a very damaging blaze at the brick residence of Eli Breneman at 226 South Franklin street. There was no one in the house at the time except Mrs. Breneman who was in an upper room attending to household duties. Something went wrong with the furnace in the basement, and the rooms above were quickly filled with smoke. Mrs. Breneman did not know anything of the danger until the smoke warned her, and when she went into the hall the density of the smoke was such that it seemed she was cut off from escape. She made the attempt, however, to get down the stairway, and half way down, a man rushed up and helped her out. It was a narrow escape. Just then the firemen arrived and in a short time the fire which was confined entirely to the basement near the furnace, was under control. A heavy bookcase and a safe were taken out of the front part of the house, but that was all. The damage to the property will be about $100. Fully covered by insurance. The flames did not burn through the first floor.
